1. My ancestral family surname is Afonso, however due to a clerical/spelling mistake it has been wrongly recorded as Alphonso in my Birth certificate, Baptism certificate and Marriage certificate and other official documents. Both surnames refer to the same person, that is myself. The correct and original surname used by my family and ancestors is Afonso and the variation “Alphonso” has appeared only because of incorrect recording in documents. I therefore declare that Afonso and Alphonso are one and the same surname belonging to me, and I request that the correct surname Afonso be considered for all legal and official purposes.
2. That my name appears as Valerie M. Alphonso on my Birth certificate. That my name appears as Valerie Maria Alphonso on my Marriage certificate and Baptism certificate. That my name appears as Valerie Maria Rodrigues on my Overseas Citizenship of India (OCI) card and United States of America Passport. That my name appears as Valerie Alphonso on my PAN card.

3. I hereby declare that the names Valerie M. Alphonso, Valerie Maria Alphonso, Valerie Maria Rodrigues and Valerie Alphonso all refer to one and the same person, that is myself. I further state that my correct name after correction shall be Valerie Maria Afonso, which is the true and proper name to be used for all legal and official purposes.
4. I further declare that Dominic Alphonso as appearing on my Birth certificate, Dominic Honorato Alphonso as appearing on my PAN card, Dominic H. Alphonso as appearing on my Overseas Citizenship of India (OCI) card and Domingos Honorato Afonso as appearing on my father's Birth certificate and Marriage certificate, all refer to one and the same person, who is my father.
5. I also declare that Flory Alphonso as appearing on my Birth certificate and Baptism certificate and Florina Dias as appearing on my mother's Baptism and Marriage certificate, both refer to one and the same person, who is my mother.
6. This declaration is made to confirm that the above mentioned names appearing in different documents belong to the same respective individuals.
